Subject: RE: Aztec University of Chalco Mexico

Dear Sir, Dear Madam,

The university was listed in the International Handbook of Universities 2011; however at that time we only had information on the Licenciatura degree. The Handbook 2012, which will be released at the end of summer, confirms that this institution offers degrees up to PhD level. This information is also available in the current edition of the World Higher Education Database (WHED) CD-ROM which was released at the end of February 2011 (<http://www.iau-aiu.net/directories/index.html>).

Kind regards,

Nicholas
